CITY FACTS AND FANCIES.

We beg the indulgence of our readers for the delay this week. Job work has been crowding us, and we have had to let our paper go to do it.

In Atchison county, the Democrats, two years ago, elected a full county ticket. To day, every man of that ticket, with one exception, is with the traitors and in arms against the government; and of the Union Democratic Ticket nominated there last spring, and which was gloriously defeated, full half of them are now with the rebel army.

As is the case with our home Democracy, the Atchison traitors, last spring, tried to sail into office under Union colors; but they were defeated, and seeing no opportunity to benefit rebellion in the loyal county of Atchison, they joined the army of treason and are now fighting against the government.—It would not be at all surprising if Davis county furnished a parallel case to Atchison.

A DESTRUCTIVE PRAIRIE FIRE—ONE LIFE LOST.—On last Monday night our vicinity was visited with the most disastrous prairie fire ever known in Western Kansas. In Dickinson county many of the farmers met with severe loss—the fire destroying all their hay, a good portion of the corn, fences, sheds, &c., and burning badly a great deal of the stock. Mr. Hersey, on Mud Creek, is the principal loser, we believe, in Dickinson. The fire came in from the Northwest, but was not considered dangerous until after dark, when a strong breeze sprung up, blowing from that direction, which sent the fire in upon the settlements along the Smoky Hill. Near Kansas Falls, four houses were burned to the ground, and about thirty head of cattle burned, some of them dead, others so badly burned as to be unfit for use.

The most lamentable affair was the burning to death of a little boy, the son of Mr. Devan, of Dickinson county. The poor little fellow was out hunting cattle, when the fire overtook him, and when found his body was burned to a crisp. It is reported that a woman and child were also burned, but the report needs confirmation. Mr. Charles McGee was also badly burned, but not, we believe, dangerously. He was hauling a load of household goods across the high prairie towards Kansas Falls, when the fire came upon him. His wagon and goods were entirely consumed, his oxen burned to death, and he narrowly escaped his terrible fate.

Altogether it has been a most disastrous calamity. Many of the farmers have lost all they possessed, so that it leaves them destitute, and they may perhaps need assistance from their more fortunate neighbors, which should be cheerfully granted them. It is suspected that the fire was set by a party of Indians, who went out on the old express road a few days before. Whoever were the perpetrators of the heinous crime, for it can be called by no milder term, should be caught, if possible, and summary justice inflicted upon them. We have a law to punish such outrages, and Indians as well as whites, who live in Kansas, are acquainted with the disastrous effects attending such fires, and if it is discovered that they are the guilty parties they should suffer the penalty which the law attaches to the crime.

FROM MISSOURI.

We are in receipt of a private letter from a member of Merrill's Cavalry Regiment, of St. Louis, dated at Camp Thayer, near Syracuse, Mo., from which we extract:—"From here we go to Syracuse, a Commissary Post, for provisions, overcoats and boots, and from there we go in pursuit of Price, together with Fremont's troops with whom we are to form a junction at Springfield. We have had no battle yet, but expect one between here and Syracuse, as there is two thousand secessionists at Versailles, about half way, and they will probably suffer us to attack them, as they are double our number. Hope they will, for I am confident we can 'clean them out.'—We are well armed and officered, and pretty well disciplined. We have had four stampedes since we left St. Louis; the first one at St. Charles was perfectly awful. The horses, nearly one thousand, all running at one time, over our tents and wagons, killing eight men outright and wounding a hundred and sixteen others, and some of them so badly that they are yet unfit for duty.—We lost altogether, in the four stampedes, one hundred and seventy-four horses, part getting killed and part straying off, no one knows where; but we have 'confiscated' double that number, so we are all right on the 'hoss question.' * * *

PATRIOTS TO THE RESCUE.

EDITOR UNION.—We hear continual boasts from the secession Democrats, that they are going to get many formerly Republican, but now acting with the Union party, to vote their ticket. I ask, can this be possible? Will any man who ever professed to be a true Republican, dishonor himself by casting his vote for men who sustain directly or indirectly the traitorous resolutions of Sept. 3d, passed in Junction City by the so-called Democrats.

I believe that every man who does so commits a wrong against his country. Those resolutions are traitorous in their tendency, and were intended to aid in crippling our government and dividing the people upon the great question of sustaining it. They are full of guile and treachery. At the Convention where they were adopted, the whole Breckinridge crew of the District was on hand, determined to put through a traitorous platform, and they did so; and now while their leader is fighting against his country, his tory satellites still maintain his principles, and not one of the so-called Democrats, dare come out and publicly repudiate them; and they go round in the 'fence corners' and condemn them to good Union men for the purpose of getting their votes, but to their own rebel band they talk in a very different strain.

Let us beware! Should we trust a man in our country matters who is guilty of sympathy with our country's enemies? Support no man in this election who is not willing to give up party for the sake of his government.

A FORMER REPUBLICAN.

FIGHT ON THE POTOMAC.

1200 REBELS KILLED! 4000 TAKEN PRISONERS.

A dispatch was received in St. Joseph on the 26th, over the Hannibal line, that Gen. Banks had achieved a great victory on the Potomac, killing twelve hundred of the rebels, and taking four thousand prisoners. The line between here and St. Joseph being down last evening, we could not get any of the particulars.—Times.

Cassius M. Clay, our Minister to Russia, has intimated to the Government that, in view of the threatening attitude of the rebels, he would prefer to surrender his present commission as representative to Russia, and enter the army in active defense of the Government. The Cabinet has the matter under consideration, and Kentuckyans here are anxious for the return of the gallant Cassius.

We learn from the Leavenworth Conservative that the telegraph between the Atlantic and Pacific is now complete. The first messages were sent over on Thursday evening.

The President has at last suspended the writ of habeas corpus for the District of Columbia. The Judges and lawyers have made themselves so troublesome with their officious interference with military affairs that this has become necessary.

The election in Virginia for a division of the State has, in all probability gone favorable to the division by a very large majority.

Late foreign advices announce the death of the Emperor of China.

business entrusted to his care in Western Kansas.

A Tennessee paper says that Andy Johnson is very bitter against the secessionists. Whether he is so or not, he has certainly had enough to make him bitter. A band of the rebels went to his house in East Tennessee with the avowed purpose of hanging him, and not finding him at home, they cut a hickory withe in the woods and scoured with it the body of his wife. Who could wonder if the outraged husband were to raise his clenched right hand towards God's firmament and swear to wage a war of extermination against the infernal miscreants?—Louisville Journal.

Reports are in circulation that Independence, alternately held by Federals and Rebels, is again in the possession of the latter. The enemy is collecting there in large numbers, and making threats of taking Kansas City and Fort Leavenworth.

Porley always was a favorite with the ladies and could find out their secrets. He says now that it will soon be necessary to fit up one of the rooms of the White House as a nursery.

A CARD.

We respectfully inform the people of Junction City and surrounding country that we have sold out our entire stock of goods to Mr. Henry Ganz, and hereby tender our thanks to all our friends and the community for the liberal patronage we have enjoyed, and bespeak the same for our successor in business.
N. S. RANSOHOFF & CO.

A CARD.

To the Citizens of Davis and adjoining Counties:

Having purchased all the right, title and interest of the firm of N. S. Ransohoff and Co., in Junction City, I deem it necessary that I should acquaint the trading community of the fact, and assure the patrons of the old firm and the people generally, of my intention to sustain unsold the excellent business character which the retiring gentlemen have always borne in this community. From a lengthy experience in the trade in Western Kansas, I believe I am qualified to supply the wants of the trading people in this section. I have just received a fresh supply of Groceries, Provisions, Clothing and other articles from the River, to which I invite attention. The public generally are cordially invited to call and inspect.
HENRY GANZ.

HAVING CARRIED ON THE BUSINESS for several years in BOSTON, and having had many years' experience in Carriage manufacturing and shoeing shops and also a large experience on breaking plows, would announce to the surrounding country that he is now fully prepared to do all kinds of work, such as HORSE-SHOEING, IRONING WAGONS, BUGGIES AND SHAHS, FORGING OF MACHINERY, EITHER BY DRAUGHT OR PATERN, FOR CORN, FLOURING, OR SAW-MILLS, on the shortest possible notice.

All work warranted, and done on the most reasonable terms. Produce taken as payment.

Gunsmiting.

In view of the uncertainty of horse-flesh, and also of the fact that Injuns and Secessionists abound in our midst, it would be useless for me to urge upon the settlers the importance of having their old shot-guns and muskets, &c., made 'brand new.' I therefore announce that particular attention will be paid to the repairing of all manner of FIRE-ARMS. LOCKS of all kinds repaired, and KEYS fitted.

NOTICE.

The attention of all persons, who purchased portions of the estate of Louis Kittles, deceased, and whose notes for the same I now hold, is called to the fact that said notes are due the 13th of Nov. 1861, at which time I shall expect a settlement with all parties. By prompt compliance, considerable trouble may be averted. Respectfully,
